

Join us for an insightful and inspiring talk with John Wood, award-winning Author, Founder & Board Co-Chairman of the non-profit organization, Room to Read.

“Combining the heart of Mother Theresa with the scalability of Starbucks”

Room to Read aims to help children across the developing world break the cycle of poverty through the power of education.

March 5th, 7– 8pm

Singapore Management University

81 Victoria Street, Singapore 188065

The Mochtar Riady Auditorium, Administration Building, Level 5

FREE Admission

Registration is required for this event and is on a first-come first-serve basis.

For more information and to register:

www.roomtoread.org/AAS

At age 35, John Wood left an executive career track at Microsoft Corporation to form Room to Read.

In his award-winning memoir, Leaving Microsoft to Change the World, John tells the story of how he and his team have raised nearly $200 million of financial commitments from a “standing start” to develop one of the fastest-growing non-profits in history.

To date, Room to Read has opened over 1,500 schools and 13,000 libraries, serving over 6 million children across the developing world.

Proudly brought to you by:

American Association of Singapore